START TIMES: 50 MILES – 7:00 AM, 30 MILES – 7:30 AM, Intro – 8:00 am

FACILITIES: This is a grassy flat primitive campsite with no-accessible water. Please bring your own water and horse water, if possible. The park service will be providing water for the ride. Please park tight as space is limited. Two porta potties will be provided. There is also two composting potties in the parking area adjacent to the camping area. No showers available.

CAMPING: Park opens at 10:00 am on Friday, December 6, 2024. All rigs must leave by Sunday, December 8, 2024 at noon.

HOUSEKEEPING: Horse manure can be scattered in wooded areas. Please pick up any hay in your area and take with you. Let's keep this park as pristine as possible!

TRAILS: The trails are barefoot friendly and awesome! There is a flat pine/palmetto forest called Pine Island, a hardwood forest called the wide (with natural water and a creek to cross), there is the badlands which has mostly hard packed sand trails and the most amazing hills you will ride in Florida (so be prepared). Natural water and water stops will be available.

AWARDS: Completion awards will be available for pick-up at registration. Top Ten, Junior, Best Condition, High Vet, Turtle will be presented at awards meeting. 30 Milers awards meeting will be held at approximately 3:30 pm and 50 Miler awards meeting will be held at approximately 7:30 pm. If you have to leave early, pick up your awards at registration desk.

FOOD: Friday night dinner including vegetarian will be available approximately 5:30 pm and riders meeting to follow.

RIDERS MEETING: A number of topics will be discussed. You will hear from the vets, timers and trail team. I strongly suggest that everyone attend if possible.

MORNING OF RIDE: Coffee, hot chocolate, orange juice, oatmeal, fruit and snacks will be provided and available at 5:00 am.

GRILL CHEESE STATION: Will be available for riders and volunteers from 10:00 am to 2:00 pm on ride day.

DIRECTIONS: From the North. US17 south through Palatka approximately 15 miles to Sisco Rd (you will see a parking area on US17 that says Dunns Creek – do not park there)

Go past a very short distance to Sisco Rd to turn left – go approximately 2.5 miles – turn left at park entrance (DO NOT STOP AT PAY BOX). TAKE PAVED ROAD TO CAMPING AREA APPROXIMATELY 3 MILES.

From the South: Take 40 east to Barberville Turn right on US17 past Pomona Park to Sisco Rd approximately 28 miles. Turn right on Sisco Rd 2.5 miles to left at park entrance (DO NOT STOP AT PAY BOX). Take paved road to camping area approx. 3 miles.
